

Sarah Lovering Family - New England, The Great Migration and the Great Migration Begins, 1620-1635, Vol 1, A-B pg 514 John Bushn

New England, The Great Migration and The Great Migration Begins, 1620-1635

Great Migration, Vol 1, A-B

514

John Bushnell

- vi JOHN, b. about 1664 (had come of age by 14 December 1685 [SPR 9:249]); m. by 1687 Sarah (Lovering) Place (eldest known child b. Boston 4 August 1687 [BVR 1:172]), widow of John Place and sister of William Lovering (on 28 July 1682, "John Place of Boston ... mariner and Sarah his wife" mortgaged land to Elizabeth Winsley, and, on 21 February 1688/9, Elizabeth Winsley "acknowledged full satisfaction for the within mortgage from John Bushnell who married the relict of John Place" [SLR 12:256-57]; on 1 June 1737, "Jane Underwood of lawful age" deposed regarding "John Pride who lived in the Eastern parts of New England and ... his wife was Jane Lovering my mother's own sister" [YLR 18:253]; "Jane [daughter] of John and Sarah Place" b. Boston 18 April 1683 [BVR 160]; on 1 May 1703, Anthony Underwood and Jane Place were married at Boston [Twenty-eighth Report of the Record Commissioners (Boston 1898), p. 16]) [GDMNH 559, 445].